Hello Silverfin team

ready to strengthen your marketing operations?

Silverfin needs someone who can step into marketing operations, keep the engine running and improve what creates friction. That fits my background: 20+ years across CRM, marketing automation and lifecycle engagement, on both agency and company side. I have advised teams with my own maturity model and built lead, data, automation and reporting flows with marketing and sales.

● Customer Insights

Qualitative and quantitative research. Behavioral insights and journey mapping translated into lifecycle improvements, better messaging and less friction.

● Data-Driven Engagement

Campaigns built on explicit and implicit data. Advanced segmentation, scoring, profiling and opt-in strategies to engage the right person at the right moment.

● Funnel & Lifecycle Analytics

End-to-end lifecycle management across onboarding, activation, retention, reactivation and cross-sell. Funnel analysis to detect drop-offs and design targeted interventions.

● Implementation & Integration

+10 marketing automation setups with CRM, DMP, content platforms and digital personalisation tools. Connecting data, systems and workflows so campaigns run reliably.

● Lead Generation & Nurturing

Lead generation, nurture and lifecycle programmes across SaaS, finance and B2B markets. Built rewarded campaigns and flows that improve lead quality, conversion and sales follow-up.

● Testing & Optimisation

UX research, redesign and A/B testing to improve results. Applying behavioral techniques, detecting digital stress and turning user friction into clearer journeys.

● Marketing & Sales Technology

Marketing Automation

Eloqua (Oracle) · Responsys (Oracle) · Marketo (Adobe) · Neolane (Adobe) · Selligent (Zeta) · HubSpot · Pardot (Salesforce) · ExactTarget (Salesforce)

CRM & Reporting

Dynamics 365 (Microsoft) · Sales Cloud (Salesforce) · Siebel (Oracle) · Pipedrive · Teamleader · Tableau (Salesforce) · MicroStrategy

Ready to step in for a one-year cover

"Temporary cover needs speed, ownership and structure. I can step in quickly, understand the systems, run the work, improve friction and leave clearer processes behind."

"Silverfin fits because it combines SaaS, finance, automation and Ghent. My background in marketing automation, CRM and lead operations is directly relevant here."

What makes me a strong fit

● Senior Hands-on

I can think strategically, but also build, fix, document and execute inside existing systems, from brief to delivery and handover.

● Ownership

I do not wait to be told what to do. I clarify priorities, decide fast and stay accountable for the work, the team and the handover.

● Marketing Technology

+15 years in CRM and marketing automation. I connect systems, improve data capture, train teams and build one customer view.

● Agency & Client-side

I know both sides: agency delivery pressure, internal ownership, stakeholder needs, timelines and operational reality.

● Alignment & Stakeholders

I connect marketing, sales, product and operations, align different needs and turn complexity into workable decisions.

● Team Enablement

+40 workshops and trainings. I help marketers, sales teams and stakeholders adopt better tools, processes and ways of working.

"Finance has always interested me, especially where technology makes complex work clearer and more useful. After 10 years across banking, insurance, payroll and fintech-related services, I would be glad to contribute to that progress."

Understanding Automation & Lifecycle

I know how to build and run customer engagement from the ground up. I have trained marketing teams across Europe, run +40 workshops and worked as CX and Engagement Consultant with central and local marketing teams at large corporates. Not just advising, but designing, building and executing together. I share two frameworks I developed and applied.

Customer Engagement Framework: A persona-centred model connecting content marketing and lead management around the customer decision journey. Applied across 10+ corporates to build structured engagement programs.

Marketing Automation Maturity Model: A practical model to help teams grow step by step in marketing automation maturity. From quick wins to data-driven engagement. Applied across multiple industries and countries.

What I master

● Research & Insight

Qualitative & quantitative research | Market analysis | Behavioral audit | Customer & user profiling | Behavior change & habits | Contextual mapping

● Campaign & Content Design

Concept designs | User stories | Campaign flow design | Trigger definition | Dynamic content | Paid, earned & owned media | Data capture | Recovery flows

● Market & Customer Strategy

Customer life purpose | Value proposition | Segmentation | Go-to-market journey | Buyer & user journey mapping | Lifecycle flows | CLC programs & campaigns

● Campaign & Performance Management

Testing | Optimisation | Executive alignment | Time & budget management | Friction detection | Reporting | Learn & Adapt | Localisation | Frequency | Opt-out

● Data & Technology

Service blueprinting | Data modeling | Data flows | Data capture & cleanup | Opt-in & permission | Marketing & sales – tech integration | Campaign building | Stakeholder alignment

● Experimentation & Conversion

A/B testing | Email, website, forms, notifications, landing pages | Personalisation | New technology | Digital stress | Detect & resolve emotional and mental friction | Behavioral techniques

Beyond Marketing Operations

My background goes broader than lifecycle marketing alone. These are three areas where I can add value beyond the core role, when the team needs it.

Service Design From idea to service

Designing and improving digital services from the ground up, always grounded in customer and user research.

User Engagement From first use to daily habit

Guiding users through first value experiences, feature adoption and recovery. Step-by-step user guidance.

Research Insight for better decisions

Setting up continuous research within a team: the right methods, enriched with behavioral understanding.
